

3 Journalists Seen Alive

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Post Dispatch says that three American journalists missing in Cambodia are reported to be alive and in enemy hands.

The three are Richard Dudman, the Post-Dispatch's chief Washington correspondent; Miss Elizabeth Pond, a correspondent for the Christian Science Monitor, and Michael Morrow of the Dispatch News Service International.

The newspaper quoted State Department officials as saying the three were seen last Thursday apparently being moved to an unspecified destination.

Dudman, Miss Pond and Morrow were together when reported missing May 7 near Svay Rieng.
