
Rockets Hit Tan Son Nhut

S&S Vietnam Bureau

SAIGON—Ten 122mm rockets landed on and around Tan Son Nhut AB early Wednesday, leaving four dead and 26 wounded.

Two of the wounded were Americans.

A U.S. spokesman said the rounds landed at 3:30 a.m. and were fired from northwest of the base.

Damage reports listed three houses destroyed by the Communist barrage.

No further details were immediately available.

Pacific Stars and Stripes
June 13, 1968, page 1